

Estabrook/Coleman Place Civic League General Meeting – Nov 19, 2019

Vice-President Carolyn Foca opened the meeting at 7:00 PM and led us in the Pledge of Allegiance and Avis McCann with the Lord's Prayer. The recognition of guests followed. There were 17 in attendance.

Officer F. Trojhan gave the crime stats for the last 30 days. He reported that crime went up and he went over each incident. Q & A session followed. Fred Gallup reported he attended a recent quarterly meeting at the Third Patrol Division and there was only eight in attendance. More civic people need to attend these meetings. He also reported the neighborhood is getting new railroad crossings.

The guest speaker was Public Works Director Mr. Richard Broad. There are many divisions in public works that service everything in the public right away except traffic signals. They work hard to make roads safer for pedestrians and bikers because there have been too many fatalities. He briefly went over various divisions in the department. To name a few: Waste Collection, Towing, Storm Water, Street Sweeping, Pump Stations, Design (engineers), Surveys and Streets & Bridges. A Q&A session followed.

Treasurer Theresa Russell reported the income and expenses noting an ending balance of $7,432.85.

Old Business

Neighborhood Development Specialist Delk Koolman reported on the recent Norview Task Force meeting he attended. He had an update on the lot at 6107 Sewell's Pt. Rd. that was demolished. The city is looking at a Civic Park at the lot to be used for the neighbors. The city is talking of having a second Imagine Five Points celebration to be held in the fall of 2020. The Planning Commission will be having a public hearing on Feb. 22, 2020 for a proposed 7-Eleven to be built on the site of the BP service station.

Fred Gallup gave a report on the recent Norfolk Federation of Civic Leagues meeting he attended.

New Business

Carolyn Foca reported on the upcoming Christmas party that will be held the night of our meeting on Tuesday, Dec.17, 2019. Chicken and punch will be provided. A list went around for people to sign up to bring a side dish and desserts.

Election of Officers and Trustees – John Lindberg conducted the election. There were no additional nominations from the floor. The office for Treasurer remained open. The president will appoint with permission from the rest of the officers.

PRESIDENT – Carolyn Foca VICE-PRESIDENT- Avis McCann 1st V-President – Diana Lionetti 2nd VICE-PRESIDENT Fred Gallup SECRETARY – Janis Carney and Treasurer – OPEN BOARD OF TRUSTEES – Lisa Martin, Claudia Graham, Grace Strid, Virginia Heywood and Ken Carney

Hot Water Heater – was replaced because it was leaking and old.

50/50 Raffle – John Lindberg won and gave his winnings back to the civic league.

Meeting adjourned at 8:30 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
Janis Carney, Secretary